

Nov. 27, 2023

Notice of Data Security Incident

National Account Service Company (NASCO), a company that provides health plans with various support services, including enrollment, billing, claims adjudication, and benefits management, experienced a data security incident that may have impacted certain Florida Blue members who had claims processed outside of Florida under the BlueCard program.

Click here for more information.

###